Hi, Spartans! This is your commissioner of publicity, Mia Vodanovich. How was your first day back at school? Mine was terrific! I also hope you guys had a great and safe Halloween. Fun Night was spectacular! Anyway, how many of you are going to go on vacation soon? I know I am! Some of the top vacation spots are Disneyland, Hawaii, and Los Angeles. For those of you staying home, sleep in like I do! It always makes me feel pumped for the day ahead. Remember: not too much TV or video games. You have to stay in tip-top shape when P.E. comes around! Oh, and don't forget, the Talent Show and Speech Contest are coming up soon. Get your acts and words together!

Much love, Mia Vodanovich

Hey Spartans! I'm Erica Leung your Big Events reporter. In case you forgot, we had our big School Inauguration in September. Congratulations to the new student council members and class representatives. Who had fun at the Spirit rally? I know I did. All of you looked like you had a lot of Spirit out there. What was your favorite game we played? Mine was the mummy wrap. Congratulations to the winning classes, Mrs. Stevens third grade class and Ms. Ruiz's fifth grade class. You guys had awesome spirit. How'd all you guys and ghouls like Fun Night? Some of those costumes were pretty wild! Our new upcoming events will be selling See's Candy, the Christmas program, and the poetry contest. In November we'll be selling See's Candy again! So get your orders from friends, family, neighbors and anyone who wants a delicious treat for Christmas. Speaking of Christmas, are you guys excited to see the Christmas program and get full of the Christmas spirit? Well, you only have to wait a little while longer because the Christmas programs will take place on December 19th. I hope to see you all there full of the Christmas spirit. So kids in the program, keep on practicing hard. One more event there is after our Christmas break is the poetry contest. That will be taking place on January 30 and 31st. Good luck to the students that are chosen in the final round. Well, I hope you all have a great Thanksgiving break. See you later!
